

DAILY GRAPHIC REVIEW OF NEWS EVENTS

ANOTHER PAGE IN GRIDIRON HISTORY was written by "Chuck" Palmer, husky Northwestern University halfback, in game against Minnesota, when he tied record of thirty-one years' standing by picking up fumbled ball behind own goal posts and running 105 yards for touchdown. Photograph shows runner.

CHAMPIONS BOTH—Caledonia Mischief won highest shorthorn honors in heifer class at San Francisco live stock show. Miss Bertha Wilcox is shown with winner. (Int'l News Reel.)

SYMPATHY for this family eliminated many jurors and had courts stumped for time in Brooklyn, N. Y., where husband and father, Joseph McDermott, was on trial for slaying his wife's brother, Michael Mulroy.

REV. CHARLES B. MOULIMER, S. J., president Catholic Hospital Association, attended meeting of surgeons in Boston. (Int'l News Reel.)

WONDER CHILD OF PIANO, Evelione Taglione, fifteen, who has arrived in America, could only be quieted when baby by being allowed to "rattle" keys of piano

FREED ON MURDER CHARGE for killing "Handsome Jack" Bergen, daredevil movie actor, George Cline, movie director (seated), and his brother-in-law, Charles Scullion (standing), had happy reunion with Cline's wife and children.

NO MAN'S LAND FOR WOMEN'S PARTY, Washington headquarters having ruled that from president to messengers all employees must be feminine. Julia Ohear is shown just about to take off on mission of haste. (Int'l News Reel.)

HELEN BEST, of Los Angeles, offered to wed any American born man of sober habits who would give her $5,000 for her aged parents. (Int'l News Reel.)

WEATHER FORECAST: "FROST DUE SOON!"—This Jack Frost is vice-president of Frost National Bank, San Antonio, Tex., former war aviator, who is flying by easy stages from New York to his Texas home. (Int'l News Reel.)

DR. JOHN B. WALKER, of Columbia University, New York, attending meeting of noted surgeons in Boston. (Int'l News Reel.)

MA AND BILLY SUNDAY go through their stunts after calling on President Harding at White House, Washington. (Int'l News Reel.)

ACCUSED—Mrs. Killian Schwenck Spurgeon, sued for divorce by Lieutenant Milton K. Spurgeon, U. S. N., in New York court, was named in simultaneous suit in which Mrs. Carl F. Silber asked decree

HEIRESS TO $25,000, which New York court says she cannot touch until lost sister is found, Mrs. Jennie Cooper (shown with son John) has instituted nation-wide search for Mrs. Minnie Weissman, who disappeared six years ago. (N. Y. A.)

LAST PICTURE OF S. S. CITY OF HONOLULU before burning liner was sunk in Pacific by gunfire. (Int'l News Reel.)

WHEN HIS LOVE COOLED, Miss Mary Lake, of Boston, sued Fred W. Green, real estate broker, for $20,000 for alleged breach of promise. (Int'l News Reel.)

"NATURAL" EARRINGS, diamond studded, when not worn by Miss Lillian Shaffer, of Los Angeles, can be used to great advantage to beseech "Little Joe" to "hop up and buy pair of shoes for baby." Her friends call her "Lady Luck." (Int'l News Reel.)